

Council Development Committee

The Council Development Committee shall be responsible for ongoing review and recommendations to enhance the quality of the CCE. The Council Development Committee shall, among other things:

- i. develop slates of potential Councilor candidates based on nominees submitted to the CCE Administrative office by members of the chiropractic, academic, and/or professional communities, and/or the public at large;
- ii. act as the credentialing committee by reviewing the credentials of nominated Councilors to determine if they are in full compliance with the criteria set forth in Section 6.02;
- iii. encourage Council diversity and development;
- iv. assess Council effectiveness; and
- v. nominate individuals for election to the Council, and for elected Chair positions of Council committees.
